Description

Antique pine linen / medicine cupboard dating from around the late 1800's, from the Czech Republic. A tall and slender storage cupboard that would work well in a narrow space. Pretty shaped panelled double doors and a top "medicine" drawer, to keep things out of reach. The drawers' original ornate brass handle is in very nice condition. The doors open fully for easy access. Inside the cupboard are three shelves. Overall it is in excellent condition for its age, having recently been stripped exposing a clean and tidy bare wood and now ready for waxing or painting. In our opinion it would look very nice painted. Height 64", width 41.5", depth 17.5"
