Description

Early 19th.c. mahogany breakfront combination wardrobe and press, c.1830. Slightly smaller in size than most we see at just 71" wide. Ample storage space behind the mirrored central door, with six slides over two large drawers. Flanked by full length hanging space to the left and right hand pods, fitted with rails and also retaining the original sliding frames with ten hooks to the top on each side. Moulded cornice, pointed arched door panels with beautifully figured flame mahogany veneers and raised mouldings. Superior quality with solid mahogany groundwork, sides and drawer linings. Excellent condition, retaining the original brass door and drawer handles. Cleaned and waxed in our workshops, keys supplied. Splits into three sections plus cornice and plinth for ease of delivery. Dimensions: width 71", depth 27", height 78".
