Description

For your consideration are these fabulous matching pair of Art Deco circular bedside cabinet tables, dating to the 1930's. For those less well versed in Art Deco could be forgiven in thinking these cabinets are modern such is the styling which is as relevant today as was 80 plus years ago. These cabinets are substantial with a capital S, they weigh an absolute ton, quite literally and ooze quality from the veneers used to the craftsmanship. A combination of veneers to include walnut and satinwood and finished off with chrome handles. Of the three drawers you see two are actually one door which opens to reveal an open storage area and one single top drawer, very generously sized. We also have the matching dressing table to these cabinets being listed separately. Both cabinets are in excellent showroom condition and free from any damage, chips, scratches etc.
