Description

Antique silver Syren half hunter pocket watch by the Revue Thommen Watch Company. The watch has a nicely jewelled stem-winding movement which is working nicely. The movement is signed Syren which was made by the Revue Thommen Watch Company, who registered the Syren brand name. The movement is protected by an inner hinged cover. The watch itself measures 49.6mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The case is silver and there are London import marks for 1919 together with a case importers mark for William Henry Sparrow. The case is in nice condition with only minor surface marking from use. The case has monogrammed initials to the back cover. The front cover has a small lens surrounded by dark blue enamel filled Roman numerals. The winding crown pushes in to open the front cover. Inside there is an acrylic lens which is in nice condition. The dial double sunk enamel dial is in nice condition. Original blued steel hands including the special half hunter hour hand so the time can be read when the front cover is closed. The watch will be sent in a new presentation box.
