Description

Superb and very high quality 1930's Art Deco highly figured dressing table . This very impressive dressing table really is a great piece of furniture. Features a drum shaped column either side with 3 generous sized drawers, all featuring their original chrome handles. A monster sized clear glass circular mirror sits in the center supported on a back panel of walnut veneer. The base wood to the whole piece is mahogany a true sign of quality and making the whole dresser extremely heavy. The colour of the walnut is of a mid tone and blonde colouring. This fabulous piece comes to you in excellent condition having been newly restored and traditionally hand French polished by our onsite restorers. Only flaw to mention is some silvering loss to the edge of the mirror, this is fairly common in these dressers and isn't unsightly but mentioned for accuracy. We have matching bedside cabinets to this dresser, see our other listings.
