Description

William IV dining chairs This set of 8 William IV mahogany dining chairs were made circa 1830. The William IV dining chairs were made by a chairmaker who understood design, proportion, as well as having the eye to select wonderful hard mahogany timber, not the soft dull modern timber that is now on offer these days. The 8 dining chairs have newly upholstered drop-in seats in a neutral pale green. Each chair has the desirable and solid mahogany comfortable shaped bar back. The central cross bar on the back is a carved scroll joining at the middle with a carved shell. The chairs stand on front legs that are finely turned and fluted, the usual splay legs to the rear. Imagine how special these will look in your dining room and the pleasure they will bring when you are entertaining family and friends. 48cms wide 19ins 52cms deep 20 1/2ins 84cms high 33ins Seat depth 41cms 16ins Seat height 48cms 19ins All sizes are approximate, whilst we take time measuring, we can only give closest possible sizes.
