Description

This remarkable Chinese lacquer vase dates to the Republican period Circa 1930. It is made from papier-mache with a black ground with panels of brown lacquer inlaid through out with cut and engraved mother of pearl. The vase is of hexagonal form and each side has a individual, wonderful scene with female figures in the gardens of palaces with trees and pagodas. The base and neck are inlaid with repeating panels and borders. This vase is in very good condition for its age ( one small lose of inlay to corner edge)
