Description

For those gents out there who desire a less than generic looking watch, who aspire for something not only classy but very distinctively Art Deco then this maybe the timepiece for you! This fabulous watch is made by Rubur, dating to the late 30's it's elongated case and stretched numerals with a combination copper coloured numerals against a black back drop of ensures this watch couldn't be mistaken for any other era. A luxurious design of its time an outstanding class. This watch has been serviced and as such works well and keeps good time. The chrome case with fixed lugs and a curved stainless steel back measures 19.5 across without winder. Blue steel dial hands and a sub seconds also add further to the features of this watch. The movement is jeweled. Overall condition is very good with some age related marks to the casing, nothing unsightly and only noticeable upon magnification. The watch is perfect both for everyday wear and for adding to the collections. Lovely watch any gentleman would love to wear. The case back is free of any engravings, shows no wear-through to the plating.
