Description

This is a small antique platform mirror, an English, rosewood, dressing table, or toilet, mirror dating to the mid 19th century, circa 1850. Delightful colour and patina to the attractive rosewood timber. Desirable light foxing to the original, bevelled mirror plate. Adjustable angle held in place by turned knobs. Well executed, barley twist risers capped with turned finials. Set within collars, anchored to the platform base. The platform serpentine in form and raised upon bun feet. A delightful small, antique platform mirror. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
