Description

Circa 1920-1940, a heavy brass corinthian column lamp in very good condition. It measures 48.5cm in height to the very top; 40cm in height from the flat top of the column to the stepped base which is 13cm square. There are no signs of damage or repair to the lamp, and it still has the old felt cover over the weighted base. It was rewired by the previous owner and we will arrange for a new PAT test to be done. Postage and packing is included in the price for mainland UK and for outside areas or abroad, please contact us for a delivery quote.
