Description

A superb example of an Art Deco era opaline glass ceiling light. It is an attractive shape and has its original chrome gallery stamped 'Made in England'. The light is made to hang from the ceiling on a chain and has been wired with a simple hanging flex cord and modern bayonet bulb holder. This makes it easy to adapt or hang over an existing flex. It comes with a good length of its original chain. The light is in good condition with no damages apart from a few small nibbles around the rim. The chrome has worn in places on the gallery and some red is showing through from beneath. The light is ready to install but we always recommend that the light is checked and wired by a professional electrician. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Nationwide delivery £15.
