Price

SoldItem Reference: SA61035*Date of manufacture: 1800

Description

A quality sevres continental hand painted plate depicting an 18th.century scene,with the gentleman playing a horn to the lady. The period scene is well hand painted and is decorated around the edge of the scene in a gold hand applied paint. This is a matching plate,one of a pair with different scenes and measures 10 Inches in Width to handle holes x 9 Inches. DAMAGE On this one unfortunately,but limited to a tiny missing piece on the outer edge,caused by a plate hanging wire being removed. REPAIRABLE as this is a valuable item made from hard bone china,a good result should be achievable and financially viable. REDUCED.This plate has been discounted by £30 off in comparison to the other matching perfect plate advertised on this website,and may be sold separately or as a pair if you secure the other. OUR REF: 0046AF
