Description

A handsome antique Victorian mahogany desk chair dating from circa 1870. In solid mahogany with down-swept scroll arms and shaped back splat, with a shaped seat upholstered in tan leather all standing on turned legs. The seat is upholstered in a real tan leather and the chair is solid and sturdy. It would make a very stylish desk chair. Construction/Wood: Mahogany Condition Report: Solid and sturdy. General wear and marks commensurate with age. Small section missing where arm meets seat rail (see photo). Would have originally been caned -small holes to seat rail where these would have been. It has been refinished at some point. Dimensions: Width: 55cm Depth: 48cm Height to Seat: 46cm Overall Height: 82cm
