Description

Good example of a mahogany framed button back nursing chair dating from the late 19th Century. It is a pretty shape with a deep seat and low curved arms on turned front legs with their original castors. The chair has been recently reupholstered in a good quality floral material that compliments the chair. It is a good sturdy chair and very comfortable to sit in. There are some general marks and small knocks around the legs but nothing detrimental and the frame is very solid. There are some very minor marks on the upholstery but nothing detrimental and it displays very well. Approximate Measurements: Height : 30" (76cm) Width : 24" (61cm) Depth : 30" (76cm) Height of seat : 13" (33cm) Depth of seat : 20" (51cm) The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask.
