Description

A nice example of a cottage wardrobe, which is low in height, wide and deep - made for a house with low ceilings. Dating from about c.1910 and in excellent solid condition for its age. Recently stripped to the bare wood, ready for waxing or painting. The double panelled doors are hung on external hinges allowing them to open fully. There is a bottom drawer with small wooden knobs. The hanging space is 22.5" deep, so will accommodate large suits and jackets. This wardrobe totally dismantles for delivery. Height 69", width 65", depth 25", internal depth 22.5"
