Description

Victorian mahogany breakfront bookcase This Victorian mahogany breakfront bookcase was made circa 1870 in a top-grade workshop. The Victorian mahogany breakfront bookcase consists of a 3-door section top and 3 door cupboard base section. This comes into parts for ease of transportation for delivery and moving it to around your home, library, or office. This example is of a good smaller size than you would normally find and so can stand in far more positions in a home. The doors open to allow you to access the adjustable shelving. To each side of the doors are lovely carved corbels. The base doors have panels of flame mahogany. Imagine how many books this will store and as well as the practicality of the storage you have the bonus of the wonderful rich colour this will add to your home. 153cms wide 44cms deep 222cms high All dimensions are approximate.
