Description

GILLOWS of LANCASTER: a particularly fine quality early/mid 19th century rosewood WINE or OCCASIONAL TABLE in very good condition. The well-figured top features gadroon carving around the top with beading around the lower edge of the frieze. It is supported on a carved and turned solid rosewood column which leads to a pretty gadrooned "collar" and the triform base, also beaded, with beautifully carved "Rigby" feet and castors. A lovely quality table, typical of the output from this famous firm of Lancaster cabinetmakers. 21ins diameter; 29ins high.  "The "Rigby" carved feet ~ named after Gillows' most famous carver.

Internal Ref: 1972
