Description

Very Rare Tall Early 19th Dress Mannequin, A very rare piece, the stand is very tall and adjustable in height, it was made to hang a very long Dress or Coat. The beech stand has an ebonised finish that is wearing away around the top due to constant lifting from here, however this part is painted with the address of the owner. The shoulders of the mannequin are padded and covered in faded mustard coloured silk. The Stand is in good sound condition with wear commensurate with its age and use. It is 72" tall and it is 24" across the shoulders. HH84 We only operate an online store and regrettably viewing in person is not an option.
