Description

This heavy cast ornate brass chandelier originates from early 1900s France and is dressed in cut crystal prism drops. The chandelier frame is heavily oxidised and holds eight lamps. The top brass crowns on the chandeliers emulate leaves, each holding a crystal drop. There are added floral details on each arm. The dark oxidised frame has not been polished back to retain its natural aged effect. Completely rewired and ready for use. Measurements (approx.) 23inches by 23 inches
