Description

An unusual pair of Antique French button back cocktail or bedroom chairs, the buttoned scroll backs over circular seats with a mahogany bottom rail and raised on shaped front supports. Upholstered in a peachy pink velvet. The chairs are in good clean condition, nicely upholstered and very comfortable, the springs are good with no lumps or bumps to the seats. One chair has a small area of damage to the fabric at the bottom of the back where it meets the seat. The other chair has an old repair to one leg and has been very slightly cut down at the feet making it marginally lower than the other chair - this is not noticeable unless they're very close together (see last photograph), however I can have the taller chair but down at the feet so they both match if preferred. Back - 67cm high, Seat 46cm wide max and 39cm deep. One chair has a seat height of 41cm high and the other 38cm high (see above)
