Description

An Antique Victorian Welsh dresser, circa 1900, the top with a pair of glazed cabinets with adjustable shelves flanking three open shelves with plate rack backs, the base fitted with three frieze drawers over a central 'dog kennel' flanked by a pair of cupboard doors. The pine carcass painted in a very pale blue. This style of dresser with a 'dog kennel' base is typical of those from South and West Wales, particularly the areas of Glamorgan and Camarthen. 218cm high, the base being 153cm wide x 48cm deep N.B. The ceramics illustrated are also available for sale.
