Description

This excellent pair of high back Thames Valley Windsor chairs date from the late 18th, early 19th Century. These antique chairs have elm saddle seats, crook arm supports and crinoline stretchers. The backs have arching hoops with scribed edge line, the central splat has a wheel motif with central roundel. The colour of the chairs is excellent and the condition is very good, they stand evenly and firmly. A superb pair of early Windsor armchairs to place in any setting. c.1800 Height: 41" (105cm) Width: 25.5" (65cm) Depth of seat: 15" (39cm) Height of seat: 18.5" (47cm)
