Description

A Superb Quality Victorian Desk in Golden Oak, it has eight drawers to the front, the central one is a dummy drawer and two small drawers to the top. The writing slope lifts upwards to reveal four pigeon holes and two more small drawers. The quality is amazing; all the wooden handles are carved and are original. The drawer fronts, the sides and back of the desk are panelled. There are two doors at the back of the desk. The top has three burgundy leather inserts. The condition is excellent with an attractive pale or golden colour to the Oak. It is in three sections for transport and stands on concealed castors circa 1860. DIMENSIONS: WIDTH 138 CMS, DEPTH 92 CMS, HEIGHT 74 CMS, KNEE HEIGHT 58 CMS.
