Description

Victorian satinwood military chest This Victorian satinwood military chest was made circa 1870 It is rare for a chest of this type to be made of Satinwood. This military chest has the original flush brass handles and inset corner straps that are there to give protection when it was being transported and the rigours of campaign. A British Officer would have commissioned this Satinwood military chest to take on campaign. It was made in 2 parts for ease of transportation around the British Empire around 1870-1900. Packed in its 2 parts into packing cases, and then loaded onto wagons to be transported on a wagon. If only this campaign/military chest could talk!!! Imagine the stories it could retell. Victorian military chests fit in a very contemporary home or one furnished in the more traditional manner. Imagine the joy the ownership this campaign chest will bring to you, a special piece of furniture with an eventful life. 107cms high 42ins 45cms deep 17 3/4ins 98.5cms wide 38 3/4ins All dimensions are approximate.
