Description

18th century George III tilt top mahogany tripod table. Nice shape base with turned column and cabriole shaped legs. The top is one piece with a rounded edge. The top has its original nice shape bearers underneath with original brass catch but the block looks to be an old replacement to me. It is definitely not a marriage though. The table is a very nice mellow colour with waxed finish. There is an old repair to the foot of one of the legs. SIZE; 30" diameter top. 27 1/2" high CIRCA; 1770 - 1780
