Description

This Elegant ANTIQUE SILVER TOAST RACK has four compartments with a central handle. The Silver Toast Rack, made by the well-known silversmiths of Stokes & Ireland and assayed in CHESTER in 1911, has an elegant rectangular shaped body / base that is supported by four ball feet. The toast rack has five delightful inverted 'heart-shaped' dividers resulting in four toast sections and the central divider has a shaped handle on the top. This lovely Silver Toast Rack has not been engraved with any family crests or initials and one end has a full set of clearly defined hallmarks. This is made from good heavy gauge silver, is of fine quality and is in exceptional condition and could be used as intended as a toast rack or as a superb desk top letter rack or would make a wonderful addition to any collection and would enhance any table setting. Condition: Used / Excellent There is no damage and no repairs.
