Description

An excellent pair of late Victorian period walnut bedside cupboards by Maple and Co of London. Of very good construction in straight grained walnut, now with a great colour and patina. Each with a single opening door, decorated with paneling and a carved floral central motif. Each door opens to reveal a series of 3 pull-out trays. Offered for sale in excellent condition, ready to go straight into the home. Dimensions: Width 42cms Depth 41cms Height 75cms Maple & Co was established by John Maple, a shopkeeper from Horley, Surrey, who later opened a furniture shop in Tottenham Court Road. However it was his son, John Blundell Maple, who made Maples & Co a success. With exceptional business skills, John B. Maple took over the company while still a young man. By the 1880s they were the largest furniture store in the world, exported their fine furniture to every continent. Maples manufactured their luxury furniture entirely in-house, at a huge modern complex. A timber importer and furniture exporter, they landed prestigious contracts furnishing fine houses, hotels, embassies and palaces in Europe; among them Tsar Nicholas's Winter Palace and the Hofburg Imperial Palace in...
