Description

Mid 18th.c. Welsh oak cupboard dresser base c.1750. Three plank top with a thumb moulded edge over three large drawers and a three door cupboard below. Later large turned drawer knobs, original ogee mouldings and raised and fielded door panels also repeated on the sides. Good early timbers, solid oak drawer linings, floor and backboards. Great rustic character with some obvious wear, earlier repairs and restorations. Very solid and sturdy, cleaned and waxed in our workshops. Key supplied for the centre door (side doors locked with turn catches to the inside). Dimensions: width 71", depth 21", height 33".
