Description

A lovely small mahogany drop-flap work table dating from the mid to late 19th Century. It is set on turned legs with its original brass castors. There are two drawers at one end of the table and matching dummy drawers at the opposite end. The drop leafs are supported by small hinged wooden flaps. With the leaves up the table is 29" (74cm) wide and with them down it is 15" / 38cm wide. It is in good original condition and displays very well. It is sturdy and in good order with a nice rich colour. The leaves are flat and easy to put up. The drawers open well and it has its original turned knobs. There are some minor marks, signs of age and use and a small old split across one corner but nothing detrimental. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Free local delivery within 10 miles of Ashburton, Devon. London delivery £40.
