Description

A fine example of a Georgian Sterling Silver jam spoon with a distinct dished shape spoon. It has a simple handle with beaded edge and the end is engraved with scrolling initials. The spoon is stylish and superb quality, weighing approximately 19g and measuring approximately 5" (13cm) long. It is fully hallmarked for Stephen Adams, London, 1810. It is in excellent condition with a clear hallmark. There are no damages and it displays beautifully. There are some faint surface scratches and a few light scratches and marks on the bottom but nothing detrimental. It has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use or display. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Nationwide delivery £5.
