Description

If we have to be rudely awoken from our slumber then why not soften the ordeal with this stylish alarm clock. For anyone who seeks machine age collections from the art deco period they will know all too well how scarce these pieces are. This clock ticks all the right boxes and some, not only does it look stunning but is of exceptional quality in all aspects. Originating from France this silvered bronze clock is made by C. Terras and dates to the late 1920's. Fully serviced and signed to the side of the base.
