SoldItem Reference: SA61587*Date of manufacture: 1860

Description

A wonderful and highly decorative butter dish dating to the Victorian era, around 1860 and English in origin. The beautifully shaped glass insert retains the original internal silver tray ... ice is set underneath and the butter on top, to keep it fresh at the table. The lid has a typical Victorian fern engraved decoration, highly desirable. The stand sits on its original three bun feet and the handle folds flat for easy storage. The underside is marked EPNS for Electro-Plated Nickel Silver. Superb condition without damage; the stand measuring 6" across and stands 6" tall including the handle. Item ID: 31607 ----- FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail; Insurance Optional.

Internal Ref: 31607
