Description

Large and impressive late C19th 'country-house' hinged and folding 6-panel room divider or screen . Highly decorative C19th room divider of large scale and proportions with embossed coloured and decorated paper panels in imitation of C18th Dutch or Italian tooled leather . The edges all with gilded leather and studded borders . The srchrd-top panels each with ornate rococo type reserves or cartouches with mythical bird motifs and scrolling designs. The reverse of the panels with heavily embossed design in a single block colour. The 6-fold screen has been divided into 2 3-panel sections by removing the joining hinges but could easily be reinstated to form a large span single piece screen. Minor scuffs and splits , but with no significant damage or rips . Would work equally well as a screen or room divider , or used flat against a wall to provide a decorative backdrop to a period scheme.
