Description

A most lovely pair of unblemished, unusual porcelain candlesticks of 18th century design. Decorated with delightful vignettes on both with twelve continental river and landscape scenes on each candlestick at the base, stem and cup. Gilt ground strewn with scrolls and flowers in puce & gold. Some wearing to the gold at the base and top but otherwise in good condition. Provenance: the estate of the late Sir Edward du Cann. All of the items that we advertise for sale have been as accurately described as possible and are in excellent condition, unless otherwise stated. Please note that we are also able to arrange a full shipping service for our customers. We offer a 14 day returns policy. In the unlikely event that you are not completely satisfied with your purchase we will issue a full refund of the purchase price less the return transport costs with an approved courier once an item is received by us in the same condition as it was originally dispatched. We look forward to being of service.
