Description

Fine George III period mahogany serpentine dressing-chest of small proportions being only 38" (96.5cm) wide; the top drawer with a baize-lined brushing slide fitted with compartments, boxes, trays and divisions. The drawers oak-lined with original brass handles, locks and ivory escutcheons. The canted corners inlaid with chevron-grained flutes and the top with chevron-inlaid rosewood cross-banding and black-and-white boxwood cable stringing. Standing on bold ogee bracket feet, with fine mouldings. A handsome and fine piece in excellent condition. John Beazor Antiques is a family firm, established in 1875 and based in Cambridge since 1940. We are a traditional antiques shop, but very much in the 21st century. We deal in 18th and early 19th century furniture, barometers and clocks. We choose our stock for its originality and for the quality of its colour, patination and design. We are members of the BADA. We do not exhibit at fairs preferring to deal from our Cambridge shop where we hold an Open Weekend every November. Open 9.00am – 5.00pm, Tuesday to Friday, 10.00am – 4.00pm on Saturday. A prior phone call or email before visiting is always a good idea a...
