Description

Fine Quality early Victorian Burr walnut triple wardrobe circa 1860 . The wardrobe has two hanging sections both fitted with left to right hanging rails the right hand side has shoe storage box to the bottom ,the centre section is fitted with three drawers and four slide out trays . It is in very good condition considering its great age , there are a few small veneer chips to the cornice and plinth base nothing unsightly or detrimental , the right hand also has a small piece missing from the bottom as seen in the pictures . It comes in five sections for transport these being three main sections plus the cornice and base very easy to reassemble . We can arrange delivery through the UK for £95.00
