Description

A superb, Edwardian, solid silver double Sovereign Case. The exterior of the case is a handsome plain polished silver on both sides with no engraving or embossing. The case opens by a push of a button on the side which operates the spring loaded mechanism. Inside reveals two compartments for 2 sovereigns. The inside of the lid reveals the clear hallmarks for the Birmingham Assay Office with a date mark for 1906 and Lion Passant indicating sterling silver. Partial marks are also visible on the frame of each sovereign compartment (see images). The case closes nicely with a firm click. There is a good loop to one side for attachment. A lovely Sovereign case beautifully intact and in great antique collector's condition. Very tactile piece, feels lovely to hold in the hand! Hallmarks: Birmingham 1906 Measurements: Height: 1.4 cm approx. Width: 6 cm (not including loop) Depth: 3 cm approx. Weight: 27.62 grams approx.
