Description

A fine example of a Victorian Chrystoleon in decorative plaster and gilt frame. The Chrystoleon is a technique of painting on glass from behind. The glass is curved to give the impression of depth in the scene. The scene depicts a victorian mother with child reclining on a chaise lounge to comfort her child. The condition is excellent as is the frame. Measurements are 15 1/4 Inches x 11 1/2 Inches to include the frames overall. This is much larger than most as the majority were minatures.
