Description

~ French - Circa 1880 ~ ~~ Excellent condition, fully overhauled ~~ A large, superb and very decorative original antique French clock. It is boldly modelled in the Rococo style in finely gilded bronze. Asymmetric waisted case, decorated profusely with acanthus leaves and 'C' scrolls. To the top is a large elaborate final of stylised foliage with a 'C' scroll. It is of lovely quality, heavily made but with a crisp, light design. The dial is porcelain enamel on copper with delicately painted swags between the hours and finely fretted gilt brass hands. The Rococo bezel is fitted with convex glass. The rear door is also glazed to allow the movement to be seen. The French movement is of high quality and is in excellent clean and running condition having been fully overhauled by our clockmaker. Pendulum is original. It runs for 8 days and strikes the hours and halves on a bell. We have a video clip of the clock running on our website. Condition of the case is excellent, beautifully clean and bright with hardly any wear or discolouration and there are no losses. The dial is also in excellent condition with no major damage or marks. Complete with original pendulum, bell a...
