Description

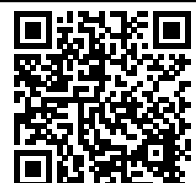

An unusual individual cocktail shaker made and signed by the American maker, Napier on the underside together with "US and Foreign Patents Applied For". I have had these on occasion in the past, but this is the very best I have seen; the top being gold plated and the bottom, silver plated. The top even retains the original red enamel labels (this is nearly always worn and missing) and the moving indicator. A cocktail would be prepared, the indicator moved to identify the contents. The top lifts off to reveal a built in strainer. Art Deco in era dating to c.1930. Superb condition measuring 6 3/8" x 2 3/8" in diameter. Item 40886
