Description

A fabulously decorated Solid Silver Card Case made by the well-known and sought after silversmiths, Hilliard & Thomason in 1859. Of shaped oblong form with an all over engine turned pattern to the front which is bordered by superbly engraved scroll work of flowers and scrolls with a central bordered blank cartouche. The Card Case has no added engravings, monograms or initials, the lid closes tightly, is of a size that can still be used with today's business / credit cards etc. and whilst there is a few signs of wear this lovely piece is in superb condition despite being almost 160 years old. This is a real collector's item which would complement any collection. Condition: Used / Excellent There is no damage and no repairs. One small ding to one corner and one or two minor usage dinks – nothing much but mentioned for accuracy.
