Description

Very impressive Edwardian era French wardrobe or armoire c.1905. Standing very nearly 8 feet tall with two long mirrored doors opening to reveal four adjustable shelves and two small drawers inside. With another two drawers in the base. Exceptional quality, the exterior in walnut with quarter veneered panels laid onto solid oak groundwork whilst the inside of the doors and the interior drawer fronts are faced in sparkling satin birch. The back boards are oak back. Crisp shaped and carved cornice, bevelled mirror panels within a carved leaf pattern surround, fluted column corners and a moulded plinth raised on large turned bun feet. Superb condition, original throughout. Simply cleaned and waxed in our workshops. Keys supplied. Could be fitted with a hanging rail if preferred. Note this wardrobe disassembles into flat sections for ease of delivery. Dimensions: width 60", depth 22", height 95".
