Description

A fine example of a small Victorian Sterling Silver milk or cream jug of pear shaped outline with pretty embossed floral decoration and three sweeping legs. The jug is stylish and good quality with a gilt lining and it weighs approximately 67g. It is clearly hallmarked for Henry Williamson Ltd, Birmingham, 1900. It is in very good condition with a clear hallmark. There are no damages and it displays beautifully. There are a few light surface marks, minor dinks and signs of use and age but nothing detrimental. It has been lightly cleaned and polished is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Nationwide delivery £5.
