Description

This mahogany display cabinet is in a nice tidy condition with a very clean relined interior. It dates from around 1900 and is in a Sheraton style with the inlays in the doors etc. It has the most appealing bow front with the lovely bow glass in the doors. The lock is even operational and with a key, the latter so often lost over the years. It is not only good looking it is a most useful item and as stated in very tidy but original condition with the interior relined. The sizes below are the size of the cabinet the top has a small upstand of 15 cms.
