Price

SoldItem Reference: SA62262*Date of manufacture: 1800

Description

A fine example of an early victorian brass inlaid credenza dating from around C1840 The cabinet is manufactured from ebonised mahogany and has a central opening door with half shelf inside. The front edge of the internal shelf is polished black and brass inlaid. The remainder of the interior is beautifully finished in french polished mahogany. There are ormolu brass gilt mounts around the contours with plentiful fine brass inlaid designs of flowers throughout the entire frontal panels. There is fine inlaid straight trim to the end panels. The condition is very good indeed in consideration of the overall age of this superb credenza. The polished finish of the inlaid brass decoration stands out beautifully against the black panelwork. Today there are few example like this on the market and its sensible shape and size make it popular for furnishing any victoian home. Measurements are Width 50 Inches x 41 Inches in Height. The unit is 17 3/4 Inches in Depth. TELEPHONE 07765 856171 TO RESERVE. VIEWING BY PRIOR ARRANGEMENT.
