Description

Antique Late Victorian Mahogany Astragal Glazed Bookcase Bureau and dating from around 1890. Constructed from quality mahogany it has a swan neck pediment top with brass spandrels and with inlaid stringing and with brass finial to the centre. This is above a cornice top with deep crossbanded frieze with inlaid stringing above two astragal glazed doors edged with I laid stringing and with working key. Internally there are three adjustable shelves. To the base the fall front with inlaid crossbanded edge, inlaid stringing and flamed mahogany oval to the centre and working key. The fall front opens to reveal a very nice interior with assorted pigeon holes and letter rack with a small drawer to each side and leather skiver. The bureau sits above four long graduating drawers all of which are mahogany lined with brass handles and inlaid crossbanded edges. It is moulded to the base and is raised on bracket feet. The top separates from the base for ease of transporting. MEASURES: 89" HIGH X 18.5" DEEP X 40" WIDE & Desk Height 28" & internal depth to bookcase 8 With a lovely deep colour and patination and oozing all the charm and character of the period.
