Description

Interesting and practical early C19th French circular mahogany bedside table or 'vide-poche'. Unusual Empire-design mahogany bedside table or bowl-stand with a central turned solid mahogany bowl or open vessel pocket-tidy mounted on the top. The bowl with a moulded edge and raised on a turned stem. The circular moulded-edge tray top with a frieze below, supported on 3 turned classically-inspired tapered columns each with collars top and bottom. The base platform of concave-sided triangular form with a circular moulded bowl-ring to the centre. The whole raised on turned bun feet. In good original condition with some marks to the interior of the central bowl commensurate with age, use and purpose. The mahogany has achieved a good deep, rich patination. Highly practical and stylish table of strong Empire design. H 33" W 18" D 18" France c.1830
