Description

Very attractive and totally authentic 1929 Bulova Art Deco ladies watch that has a 15 jewel movement that is in excellent clean working condition. Dated to 1929 this is one of the best examples we have come across that is all original. The case is 10K RGP gold with a new crocodile skin strap. The case back is free of any engravings, shows no wear-through to the plating. True vintage watches can't compete with a modern quartz accuracy, industry standard tolerance is to allow +/- 60, 120 seconds per day for this age of watch. All of our watches are serviced, free delivery and delivered in a complimentary presentation box. History Bulova is an American manufacturer of watches and clocks. Its headquarters is located in New York City. Bulova's Swiss-Made line is known as Bulova Accu, Swiss or formerly, Bulova Accutron. Bulova was founded and incorporated as the J. Bulova Company in 1875 by Bohemian immigrant Joseph Bulova. It was reincorporated under the name Bulova Watch Company in 1923, and became part of the Loews Corporation in 1979 and sold to Citizen at the end of 2007.
