Description

Wartime Oil Portrait Of Winston Churchill painted on heavy canvas. - Churchill is depicted wearing a navy blue suede jacket and navy blue and white polka dot bow tie, which he became notorious for wearing on many important public occasions and which is still very much associated with him today. - Has been in the Officers Mess at an old RAF Base. - Very well painted capturing the wartime Prime-ministers likeness accurately. - Ideal for a military collector of WW2 Memorabilia. - CONDITION Recently professionally cleaned and revarnished. Frame is solid and original with some minor distress. - ABOUT CHURCHILL Sir Winston Leonard Spencer-Churchill, KG, OM, CH, TD, DL, FRS, RA (30 November 1874 – 24 January 1965) was a British politician, army officer, and writer. He was Prime Minister of the United Kingdom from 1940 to 1945, when he led Britain to victory in the Second World War, and again from 1951 to 1955. Churchill represented five constituencies during his career as a Member of Parliament (MP). Ideologically an economic liberal and imperialist, for most of his career he was a member of the Conservative Party, which he led from 1940 to 1955, but from 1904 to 1924 was instead...
