Description

A Superb Edwardian Satin Walnut Bowed Breakfront Triple Wardrobe Inlaid with Mother of Pearl and dating from around c1900. The overall appearance and quality of craftsmanship to the quartered and cross cut veneered panels speaks for itself. It has a moulded cornice top with crossbanded frieze inlaid with Mother of pearl florets and fine stringing. To the centre bow front there are two doors with a superb veneered panel inlaid with Mother of pearl and original brass handles and key. Internally there are two removable shelves. Beneath the drawers is a cross cut panel which is in fact a secret frieze drawer. There are four long graduating drawers all of which are finely strung and are mahogany lined with original brass handles and working key. This is flanked on either side by a full length shaped and bevelled mirrored door with fine stringing, original brass handles and with working key. To the side of the doors there are Mother of pearl inlaid harebells. Internally there is a shelf above a hanging rail. The whole standing on a deep plinth base and separates for ease of transporting.
